Almost 15,000 participants followed the previous seasons of the MOOC "PhD and Career Development". This training is a massive, open, online course for PhDs candidates and PhDs graduates from all disciplines, to help them to prepare their careers. Season 6 of this MOOC designed by PhDOOC starts on January 12th.

Certificate of achievement

The MOOC is accessible free of charge.

For a fee, a certificate of achievement can be obtained for either pathway. To get this certificate, you can subscribe via our page on Helloasso or partner universities. This enables the association to continue to operate and offer access to the MOOC free-of-charge for everybody.

PLEASE NOTE: you will need to use the same email address used to sign up to the MOOC platform to make the payment on HelloAsso.

You also must succeed at one pathway according to the criteria defined in the MOOC.

For more information, you can consult the presentation page of the MOOC on <https://phdooc.moocit.fr>!
